

It is absurd that anyone thinks we should prevent satellite radio from broadcasting good, wholesome local oriented programming. The NAB should not use the FCC to protect it's market. The FCC is for the support of the people, not big business.